

Gurukul Kalpataru encourages, facilitates and empowers underprivileged children and youth of the local community by providing them with a platform for holistic personality and skill development through academic and cultural activities with an active participation of the society.