

On behalf of Kajoli family 512 blankets were distributed recently among those who were mostly affected by chilly cold weather in Sadar, Saidpur and Kishoreganj Upazilas of Nilphamari district. These warm cloths were distributed through 128 Kajoli Centres of these Upazilas. Children, teachers and mothers/guardian's representatives handed over these blankets to the needy people. Similarly, 156 blankets were also distributed among the most needy people of Boda Upazila, Panchagar. Children, teachers and mothers/guardians' representatives of 39 Kajoli Centres handed over these blankets. Distribution of these warm cloths in these cold-susceptible areas has generated people's attention towards the local Kajoli Centres. Kajoli Centres are running through community support. Many members of the greater and local communities is now coming forward to involve with the causes of Kajoli Centres. Kajoli family, comprising the children and teachers of the Kajoli Centres, mothers, guardians are also learning how to stand with the people at time of their great sufferings and odds. One of our friend contributed these blankets and Kajoli family have taken those among the most needy people. People round the globe are now coming forward for sharing and involving themselves with the children of Kajoli Centres and we on behalf of Kajoli family really excited to express our solidarity with all of them.
